2004 Herald

Windsor Locks High School
58 South Elm Street
Windsor Locks, CT

*"You cannot teach a man anything; you can only help him to find it within himself."
~Galileo*

Throughout his years at Windsor Locks High School, Mr. Francoeur has played an important part in many of our lives. He shares his passion for English with his students, encourages us to improve, and instills in us a sense of confidence. He is not only a teacher, but a mentor and a friend as well.

Now, after thirty-three years of teaching, Mr. Francoeur is retiring. He will be missed by the students, faculty, and staff, and we wish him the best of luck in the years to come. For his unfailing dedication to his students and his admirable passion for his work, it is the honor of the WLHS Class of 2004 to dedicate this Herald to Mr. James Francoeur.

With four years of high school behind us, and one foot already out the door, we take a moment to pause and reflect on memories from our childhood. A look through these pages to see how we have grown together will leave us with bittersweet emotions. Alone, we are prepared to spread our wings and start the new chapters of our lives. However, we cannot help to look over our shoulders to the laughter and triumphs, obstacles and hardships, and the hopes and dreams we share together as the Class of 2004. As a class we will spend our last moments together reminiscing about the four years that defined us. Glancing toward the future, we see a multitude of opportunities before us. Colleges, careers, and families may be parts of our futures, but whatever there may be, one thing is certain: We will forever be preserved as the Class of 2004. The successes of those in the 2004 Senior Class have been great, and will become greater with time.

For ourselves and our accomplishments, we celebrate our Memories Of The Past and our Dreams Of The Future....

"This used to be my playground, this used to be my childhood dream this used to be the place I ran to whenever I was in need of a friend. Why did it have to end?...

And why do they always say don't look back? Keep your head held high don't ask them why because life is short

Before you know you're feeling old, and your heart is breaking. Don't hold on to the past, that's too much to ask

"Here we are, tying up the loose ends, saying last goodbyes to all our friends.
Here we are, making all the right moves, moving on to new things, starting over again.

Where we're going to - it's still hard to say, but I know we'll come back some day."

~Michael V. Ficocelli

"Thinking about our younger years, there was only you and me, we were young and wild and free.
We've been down that road before but that's over now...

Now our dreams are coming true, through the good times and the bad I'll be standing there by you."

-Bryan Adams

"But we'll keep you close as always

It won't even seem you've gone

'cause our hearts in big and small ways

will keep the love that keeps us strong."

-Michael W. Smith

"You're packing a suitcase for a place None of us has been

A place that has to be believed To be seen

You could have flown away

A singing bird

In an open cage

Who will only fly

Only fly for freedom."

-U2

Class Of
2004

"It's something unpredictable

but in the end it's right

I hope you had the time of your life"

-Green Day

"As we go on, we remember all the times we had together.
And as our lives change, come whatever, we will still be friends forever..."

From high school days to the present, I have had teachers to

FACULTY AND STAFF

"The Good Old Days"

Well, fellow classmates,
The day has finally come.
We are closing this chapter,
And opening a new one.

We will experience new things And step into our dreams.
The past flows into the future,
And nothing is what it seems.

Can you believe high school is over?
So quickly it all flew by.
We have made everlasting memories,
Some that could bring tears to our eyes.

Friendship and compassion, Heartaches and first loves, Laughter and tears,
This is what we are comprised of.

As we turn this page in our lives,
We will face challenges like never before.
We may not know how to deal sometimes,
But we must be willing to open the door.

This door will lead us on the road to success.
Whatever obstacles we face along the way,
And no matter where the journey of life brings us,
We will always remember the "Good Old Days".
~Kristy Bonetti

Mr. Czarnecki -

Thanks for everything!! We really appreciate all your hard work and consideration!!

We could not have done this without you.

Your 2004 Yearbook Editors,

Jodie, Wendy, Christina, & Paula

A picture is worth a thousand words.

Thanks Jen!! (J La)

Krisztina
"KB"

Trying to find the words to say seems just as hard as saying goodbye.

I can't believe our time has come to go separate ways from our closest friends. I thank you so very much for being there for me in every way. You are a sister to me and I value your friendship more than you know. Thanks for always being there, giving advice and laughing with me. I love you so much and I know that our graduation isn't the end. We'll be getting "Dirrty" in the Subi and telling each other we are beautiful on the inside for years to come. I'll never forget all you've done. I'm always here for you. Good luck and I love you!

Love Always,
Christina

Thanks Christina, Jodie, Paula, and Wendy for the time and effort you have put into creating this yearbook. The Class of 2004 owes each of you a big thanks for making this book of memories for them.

Thanks also to Lori Kobos for selling virtually every business ad, to Joe Van Allen for his assistance with design and layout, to David Burgess for the cover artwork, and to the rest of the gang who contributed to the yearbook process.

Fond Farewells go out to Mr. Francoeur and Mr. Gallo as they ride off into the sunset after 30+ years as educators in the English department. Many thanks for the wisdom that you have shared and the patience that you have shown.

Finally, congratulations to the Class of 2004! You have accomplished one of the great feats in life, and one that is not to be taken lightly. Please don't let your education stop just because you get a diploma when you're eighteen.

Peace.

Mr. Greene

You've come a long way Karen!!

We're so proud of you!!

Love,
Mom, Dad, Bruce & Cookette

To Our Little Shawn-

You aren't so little anymore! It seems like just yesterday you were a little boy so eager to learn about the world. You have grown to be a brave, dedicated, and caring young man. We are so proud of you and love you so much! Never lose your love for life and always remember:

*"You have brains in your head,
You have feet in your shoes, You can steer yourself in any direction you choose.
You're on your own,
And you know what you know, You are the guy who will decide where to go." ~Dr. Seuss*

All of our love

Dad, Mom, Jessie, and Meghann

To Christina, AKA CJ & My Little Princess

In the last few years through all the turmoil, I realize what kind of person you were raised as. You are a very strong, independent and beautiful woman on the outside, and a sweet, thoughtful, funny, charming and innocent little girl on the inside. You taught me so much about you and about life itself and I hope that I taught you about people and reality. Just remember everything you do in life is about what you want to accomplish and to succeed in. Don't let anyone tell you different. It's about your life, no one else's. Over the years I saw my little princess turn into a beautiful woman inside and out. Enjoy college because it's a once in a lifetime experience. I'm going to miss one of the two people in my life that I love with all of my heart. I love you sweetheart!

Dad, AKA B-----

Our Graduate KIM,

We remember your very first day of school. We remember wiping your tears. It took everything in me to leave you that day. What happened to all those years? We watched as you got older and wiser. We watched as you grew big and strong. Now you're a young adult, ready to head out. How quickly this time came along. We're blessed to be the ones so close to it all, with God as our witness above; There's nothing in this entire world that we could be happier or more proud of. May you, in life, go very far. May you be the shining star we know you are.

Love, Mom & Dad

To my "Sis," from "Lil Sis," on her graduation day:
Maybe life will separate us,
Yet we'll always be best friends.
So may love, until life ends,
In joy or sorrow not forsake us, Sunshine on the darkest day.
Though there's a frequency I'll miss,
Each breath of peace that fortune sends Recalls a bond time can't betray.
-Love, Britt

To my first granddaughter, Good luck in the future!
Love Always,
Grandma Toots

Angie,
Your second part of life is about to begin; the first part was so many memories. You will always be my fishing partner, I will never forget all those times we spent together fishing in the lakes, streams, and rivers. I will keep close to my heart all those great memories we shared at the turkey shoots, vacations, the ball games, and most importantly, New York. I will always be there for you MONKEY!
Go live your dreams.
Love Always, Dad

Ang,
Wow! My LITTLE sister is graduating. I am going to miss the pony dance! Don't forget to bring a knife, kleenex, and plunger to school with you, you will need them! What will it be like without your stink lingering around the house? Thank you for being the best sister a girl could ever ask for. You will always have a special place in my heart. A sister's love is everlasting, especially ours. Knock'em dead in college, I mean on the court and in the classrooms! Follow your dreams and don't let anything stop you.
Love always...

Your BIG sister

Angela - You've grown up right before my eyes and become an extraordinary young lady I am proud to call

MY DAUGHTER.

How could I have known what a rewarding journey it would be. You've achieved so much in your young life with your joy of cooking, sports, and artistic ability. I can still taste your first attempt at cooking with a rubber band and paper clip holding the chicken together. Now your journey begins...

I love you, Mom.

Angela,
I'm sure Papa looking over you is just as proud of you as I am in all that you have accomplished in academics and in athletics. Angela - work hard, follow your heart, and all your dreams will come true.
Congratulations to you and the Class of 2004.
Love you, Nan.

Congratulations Luke Plante, for your acceptance at West Point.

I am very proud of you.

you do in the future.

Dear David,
As we watch you preparing for graduation and college, it brings back memories of the excited little boy we knew, preparing for his first day of kindergarten, which doesn't seem so long ago!

As much as we miss that little boy, we are now enjoying the man you have become. We know that with the same confidence and excitement you have shown through the years, you will have great success at whatever you do in the future. We are very proud to be your parents and wish you the same enjoyment in your future that you have brought us throughout the years.

Congratulations, little sis, you did it!! I'm so excited. I hope you know how very proud I am of you (Shannon would have been proud of you too). I know you'll accomplish anything you set your mind to, you've already proven yourself in so many ways. You have never said "I ain't gonna do it."
I love you,
Your Big Sis Tanya

ASE Certified Technicians NAPA AutoCare Center

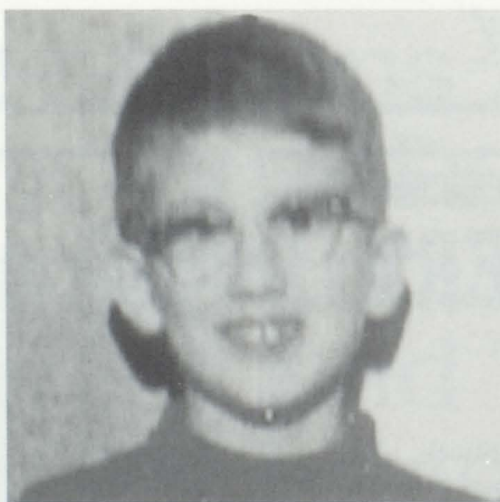

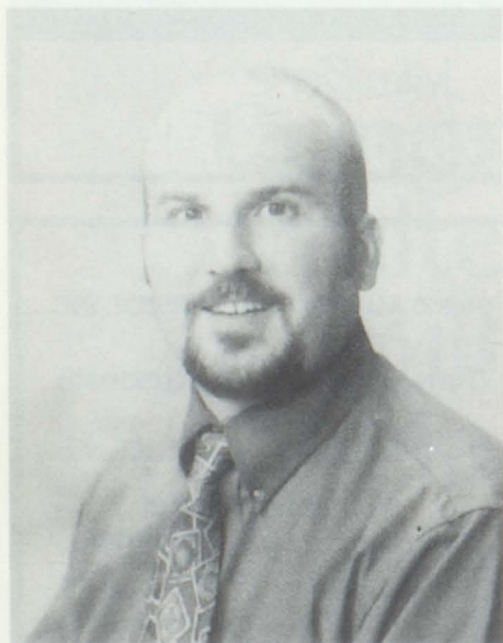

"I personally knew Mr. Greene before I started to teach and he is the reason that I am here at Windsor Locks High School. I want to thank him for his friendship and guidance." -Mr. O'Brien

"Mr. Greene is an inspiration to teaching and has a way of making the people he meets feel welcome. His jokes and laughter make you remember there is a lighter side to learning. Thanks for everything; you're the man!!!"
-Mr. Snyder

The editors of the 2004 Herald would like to take this time to thank our advisor, Mr. Greene. To us, he is not just a teacher, but a mentor and friend. Someone who can deal with Paula's control/drama fits, Jodie's incessant humming, Wendy's irrelevant discussion topics, and Christina's constant laughter deserves our infinite gratitude and respect. Whether it's in the classroom, on the softball field, in the yearbook room, or in the hallway, Mr. Greene is always there to brighten the day. His sense of humor has made learning easier and enjoyable. This yearbook would not have been the experience it has been if not for Mr. Greene.

A Note From The Editors...

As we near Graduation Day, we ask you to flip through these pages and remember our Memories of the Past. Being able to see our journey captured in these pages has been an emotional and enjoyable experience. We hope you will treasure this yearbook as much as we do. The goal of every yearbook staff has been to make the best yearbook possible, and we hope that we have accomplished this for you. As we turn the pages of the yearbook, we also turn the pages to the next chapters of our lives. If not for the yearbook staff, Mr. Greene and Mr. Czarnecki, this yearbook would not have been a success. We hope you use what you have learned during these past four years to lead happy, healthy lives. As we sit here writing, it is difficult to accept that our time at WLHS comes down to these last few words. Soon all of the familiar faces will fade into shadow, but they will forever remain bright in our hearts. We wish the best to each of you in your Dreams of the Future.

Every now and then we find a special friend who never lets us down who understands it all reaches out each time you fall you're the best friend that I've found I know you can't stay but a part of you will never ever go away your heart will stay

I'll make a wish for you and hope it will come true that life will just be kind to such a gentle mind
if you lose your way
think back on yesterday
remember me this way

I don't need eyes to see the love you bring to me no matter where I go and I know that you'll be there forever more a part of me you're everywhere
I'll always care

And I'll be right behind your shoulder watching you I'll be standing by your side in all you do and I won't ever leave as long as you believe you just believe

I'll make a wish for you
and hope it will come true
that life will just be kind to such to gentle mind
if you lose your way
think back on yesterday
remember me this way
